CLASS HISTORY

September 1953 found eighty-seven eager, excited freshmen embarking upon the threshold of a new and adventurous world - - that of high school. As newcomers we were often times perplexed by many problems but never lost sight of our destination--graduation.

During our first year at L.H.S. we were under the guidance of Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Crews, and Mr. Blackmon. We worked hard and faced each task with the determination to see our job marked as well-done.

After treading the rugged foothills of the ninth grade, we were now ready to begin our slow, hard, climb up the huge mountain that towered above us.

In our sophomore year, after reaching the first plateau, sixty-four students buckled down for nine months of hard work under the leadership of Mr. Leggett, Mr. Bradley, and Miss Taylor. We chose our class officers- President, Barbara Morgan; Vice-president, Gerald Myrick; Secretary-treasurer, Willis Adcock. During this year many members of our class entered the Beta Club, became members of the football, basketball and baseball teams, and were placed on the Lillingtonian and Annual staffs.

The third plateau of our steep climb found fifty-four Juniors under the guidance of Mrs. Kirkland and Mrs. O'Quinn. This year we elected Gene Autry as our class President; Gerald Myrick as Vice-president; Bobbie Ann Bethune as Secretary; and Doris B. Woodley as Treasurer. We worked doubly hard all year, sold magazines and presented a play, "Ready Made Family," to raise money to finance our

Junior-Senior Banquet with the theme "Memories are Made of This."

This same year we ordered our class rings, chose our motto, "Strive to be that which you wish to seem," and our class colors, lavender and white. Our class participated in the graduation exercises and at commencement furnished the marshals: chief-David Pinnix, Allen Walker, Jimmy Barnhill, Keeter Baggett, Gerald Myrick, Sue Brown, and Doris Woodley. We were rewarded for our hard work at the end of the year by being voted the most outstanding class in high school.

Forty-three Seniors with an un-failing spirit continued to climb under the fine leadership of Miss Hockaday. We elected as our officers Gene Autry, president; Gerald Myrick, Vice-president; Barbara Morgan, secretary; and Jimmy Barnhill, Treasurer. During this last year we chose our superlatives and presented a very successful play to help finance our trip to Washington. We were very busy the last months of school.

Though the rocks were rugged and the going often rough we continued to climb until we reached the summit--graduation. We realize that there looms ahead of us the gigantic mountain of life which we must yet climb if we hope to attain success.

As we survey our high school career we realize that without the guidance, love, and devotion of our parents and faculty that it would have been impossible to reach our destination. We, the Senior Class of 1957, say with sincerity and deep humility, "Thank You."
